

Once completed, make several copies. Place a copy inside of the pet-evac-pack, and give a copy to each pet rescuer and emergency contact listed below.

Pet Name: _____

Species (Cat, Dog, Hamster, Horse, etc): _____

Microchip # and manufacturer: _____

Microchip Registrar: _____

Additional I.D. Resources (tattoo, markings, etc.): _____

Veterinarian Contact Info: _____

Special Needs (deaf, blind, needs medication, feed only prescription diet, will bite, etc) _____

Rabies Vaccination Certificate Stapled to This Page: Yes or No

All Vaccination Information Stapled to This Page: Yes or No

Your Name: _____

Your Phone Number - Landline: _____

Your Phone Number - Mobile Phone: _____

Will Your Mobile Phone Accept Text Messages - Yes or No:

Street Address: _____ email _____

Your Facebook Messenger I.D. _____

Emergency Contact #1 - Local family member, neighbor, or friend:

Emergency Contact #2 - Local family member, neighbor, or friend:

Emergency Contact #3 - Out of town (beyond disaster zone) contact:

Predetermined destination for meetup or drop-off:

How should the pet be transported to above destination: _____

If you are separated from your pet, who is designated as your pet's rescuer:

Does the pet rescuer have access to house keys, alarm codes, carriers, leashes? _____

Does the pet rescuer know where pet-evac-packs are always stored? _____

Where: _____

Does the pet rescuer know where the pet hides when frightened? _____

Where: _____

Drawing of floor plan. Note where the pet may be hiding and location of the pet-evac-pack: